ATSI Scholarship - Bachelor of Applied Social Science

ACAP ATSI Scholarships aim to assist Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students from low socio-economic backgrounds and regional, rural and remote areas, with costs associated with higher education.

The ATSI Scholarship is awarded for study in the Bachelor of Applied Social Science degree.

The scholarship awardee will receive each alternate unit at no cost (ie. pay for one unit and receive the next for free). This is valued at approximately $16,000 over the duration of the Bachelor of Applied Social Science.

How to apply

Applicants for the The ATSI Scholarship for the Bachelor of Applied Social Science will need to submit the following:

- a. An application letter outlining reasons for applying for the scholarship.
- b. Strong statement of commitment to completing the qualification & intention regarding use of the qualification. Please provide documentation such as referee reports to support this commitment.
- c. Demonstrated leadership and/or significant contribution to the ATSI community.
- d. A resume.

The successful Scholar will need to commence their studies within 6 months of being granted the Scholarship and studies must be completed within 8 years. The study mode available is flexible to suit the student.
